SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

We have now arrived at the anticipated moment that all of history has been building up to, the return of Jesus Christ in glory. And this passage describes it in clearer detail than anywhere else in Scripture. We see heaven opened up and the King of Kings return to judge the world in righteousness. Though we may expect an epic struggle with such an event, Revelation 19 tells us of something a little different.

Discussion Questions

1. In last week's text, the coming 'marriage supper of the Lamb' was announced. Read Matthew 25:1-12. What does faithful living look like now in preparation of what is to come?
2. The first handful of verses in this week's passage give a very detailed description of Jesus in his return. Walk through each way he is described. What does each description tell about his character?
3. Notice the armies of heaven following Jesus. What part do they play in the final victory? Why are they there?
4. There is only one weapon that is mentioned here. What does this tell us about the word of God and how ought it affect the way that we approach it in our lives?
5. Looking at vss. 17-21, how would you describe the battle in one or two words? How should this shape the way we think about the powers of this world if we follow Jesus?
6. How often do we think about Christ's second coming as a part of the good news of the gospel? In what way does the gospel suffer if we don't include Christ's return?
