SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

Ecclesiastes 8 proves to be a difficult passage; not only in navigating what the Preacher is telling the reader, but more difficult to hear and accept. How do we relate to civil authority and society as a whole when there is clear evidence of injustice and wickedness? The answer given here is not one that we will hear out in the world, but it is a necessary lesson for us as God's people if we are to be an effective witness for His kingdom.

Discussion Questions

1. In the current passage and the one from last week, we see a theme develop that tells us that wisdom is good but that there is a frustration that comes with its constant pursuit. How do we balance out being wise in this world without being consumed with accumulating wisdom?
2. Ecclesiastes 8 opens up with the charge to keep the 'king's' command. What are the reasons that the Preacher gives? Does this apply to us in 21st century America? How?
3. Verses 8:10-13 speaks about the vanity of unjust rulers. What makes the existence of unjust rulers so frustrating according to the Preacher? What is our ultimate hope?
4. Verses 8:14-15 repeat the general frustration over clear injustice in the world. How are we supposed to live in light of it? How is it possible to live this way?
5. Where else in scripture do we find prescriptions and examples of how God's people are to live under governing authority; even unjust governing authority? How do those references line up with what the Preacher is saying in Ecclesiastes 8?
6. In what way is following Jesus the answer to relieve the tension we may feel when reading and studying this passage?

MEMBERSHIP CLASS

Saturday, October 21 // 9 - Noon

If you are interested in becoming a member, this is the first step in the process. At Grace Church, membership is the way we root ourselves in the local body of Christ, like becoming part of a family. Join us for this three hour class to learn about the beliefs, vision, and organization of the church.

If you have not yet been baptized and are interested in taking that step of faith, then you will need to attend the first hour of the class where you will learn what baptism is and why we practice it. Jesus commands all of his followers to be baptized as a witness to the world of the spiritual new birth. Sign up for the class to learn more. Register at graceinracine.com or scan the QR code at the back of the Worship Guide.
