SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

After a break for Holy Week, we are now back to our Lord's teaching from the Sermon on the Mount. This passage is the first one that comes after the Beatitudes and connects us into the main body of Jesus' sermon. Here, the Lord shows us that following him is a higher call than what we may expect.

Discussion Questions

1. In coming back to the Sermon on the Mount, what was the overall message of the Beatitudes? How do the Beatitudes set the tone for the rest of the sermon?
2. Why is it necessary that we (as well as the original audience) understand that Jesus didn't come to abolish the Law and the Prophets? How does Jesus the Law and Prophets?
3. Jesus tells us that not even the smallest part of the Law will pass away until all is accomplished. What is he speaking of? What does this mean for us?
4. The Lord gives a warning about relaxing the least of these commandments. What commandments is he referring to? What does it look like to relax God's commandments?
5. Verse 20 tells us that our righteousness must exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees. What is the nature of a righteousness like this? What does this tell us about life as a citizen of the Kingdom?
6. While these words of Jesus are certainly challenging as we hear them, how is this ultimately good news? How does the beatitude given in Matthew 5:6 help us to receive this teaching with the right heart?
