SERMON REVIEW DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

These questions are for after the sermon and can be used for Life Group discussion, one-to-one discipleship, or personal reflection and application.

We continue through the Lord's prayer in Matthew 6:10 with a plea from Jesus concerning the kingdom. He is teaching to us to have a heart that prays for the Kingdom's arrival and willing obedience from its citizens to the King. Though the words of this verse are often repeated weekly in churches without much thought, it is a request for the up-ending and restoration of everything.

Discussion Questions

1. Review: Last week we talked about Jesus' prayer for the Father's name to be "hallowed". What does that mean and what does it look like to prioritize it in our lives?
2. In the first part of 6:10, Jesus petitions for the kingdom to come. Is this a part of your regular prayers? Why do you think it often gets left out?
3. How can we actively participate in the expansion of the kingdom? Do you think this way as you live your everyday life?
4. The second thing Jesus asks for is for the Father's will to be done. What does this mean? Why does he add, on earth as it is in heaven? What does this look like?
5. How does the idea of the coming kingdom factor in when we are sharing the gospel with non-believers? Do you ever include the kingdom when talking about Christ with others?
